Plans for the affair, and for the first regular meeting to be held on Sept. 30, 7:30 p. m., at the school auditorium, were made when the board met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. T. R. Jackson, with Mrs. John Arensmeier sharing hostess honors.

"A Glad Hand," theme of the first session, will be extended to all parents, and a parent-teacher conference also is planned for the evening.

Another high point of Thursday's agenda was preliminary planning for the circus, to be held Oct. 29 at the school. Roy Dohmer, chairman, is soliciting ideas for booths and also volunteer help in manning the circus attractions.

Mrs. R. R. Christensen was ratified as the new newslette, replacing Mrs. T. R. Jackson. Also appointed were Mmes. Robert Nelson and Gordon Lee to assist Mrs. Christensen and Mrs. Al MacKongie as co-editors of the school paper.

The board accepted the resignation of Mrs. John Arensmeier, parliamentarian.

Miniature slates, pad and pen on each lunch tray carried out the "back to school" theme in refreshments.
